

Behaviour Prefect

The Behaviour Prefect is responsible for feeding back on behaviour across the school and how the systems and routines the school has in place are working.

This role includes:

- reviewing how lunchtimes systems work in the hall, studio, playground and pitch.
- reviewing transition expectations around the school are working
- providing feedback on sanctions
- Suggesting how these areas can be improved and providing new ideas for the school leadership team to consider

As well as this area of responsibility, the Behaviour Prefect will also attend Prefect Meetings with the Headteacher and other prefects to feed back and contribute to discussions regarding other areas.

As with all other prefects, the Behaviour Prefect would lead by example and demonstrate all the Atwood Values in everything he/she does.
